RE: Proposed Changes to Early Intervention Administrative Code

The Illinois Department of Human Services (IDHS) is proposing changes to the Early Intervention Program Administrative Code. The proposed changes specifically relate to the Family Fee Sliding Schedule outlined in Section 500.APPENDIX A, as well as adjustments to the language concerning the definitions of “Extended Services” and “At risk for substantial delay” in Section 500.20. These proposed changes have been posted for 60 days as of Monday, February 26, 2024.

IDHS is soliciting public comments about these proposed changes for approval as required by federal regulations. Full announcement and instructions for submitting comments and participating in public hearings are available on the IDHS website.
